

PEOPLE OF OUR TOWN

The Kid is a combination of pep, curiosity, devilment, goodness, fun, trouble and noise. Some days he brings his father's gray hairs in sorrow to the grave, and other days he brings back Dad's lost youth. The Kid is hard to get along with sometimes, but still we can't get along without him.

Making Good an Old Soast.

A process has been discovered whereby old leather can be converted into gelatin. Such transformation offers a ready way of utilizing many articles after their value to every one but the junk man appears to be gone. Since head coverings are sometimes made of leather, it would appear that at least the man confident that his candidate will win in an election may literally back up his confidence with the time-honored promise that he will eat his hat in the event that his man loses.

PARISIANS DEFENDANTS IN LEXINGTON COURT CASES

Suit was filed in Fayette Circuit Court, Tuesday, by Bruce Corbin against George Gregory, formerly of Paris, for damages of $3,000 and a judgment for $950. Corbin states that he is employed by Gregory as manager of a haberdashery store on North Limestone street and should receive a salary of $40 a week. Salary amounting to $950 is due him and has not been paid thus far, according to Corbin.

Corbin also states that when he entered Gregory's employ it was agreed that he could purchase a one-half interest in the store for $2,500, but since that time Gregory has refused to sell him a partnership. Corbin declares he has been damaged in the extent of $3,000.

Harry Jones, of Paris, is made defendant in a suit brought by W. J. McCarthy, in which McCarthy asks the court to force payment of $310 which he declares is due. McCarthy states he cashed a check for this amount for the defendant and that later the defendant refused to allow the check to be paid by the bank on which it was drawn.

INCOME MUST BE REPORTED

Returns Due, Even Though Exempt From Taxation, Declares Revenue Chief

RETURNS MUST BE IN MARCH 15

"Any person having a gross income of $5,000 or more, regardless of the fact that their net income may show a loss, must make an income tax return," W. D. Hamilton, chief of the Lexington Division, internal revenue, has announced. This is one of the new provisions of the income tax law, Mr. Hamilton said.

"Persons who fail to make a return, although it may not be a taxable return, are subject to a fine of $1,000. For example, any married man whose income exceeds $2,000, is required to make a return, although his income may be less than $2,500, and in that case would not be taxable," Mr. Hamilton said.

The blanks for corporation returns and for incomes of $5,000 or more will be available at the Lexington office in the Federal building, about February 1. All persons who made a return last year will receive a blank by mail from the Louisville office, it was said. Failure to receive a blank does not excuse one from making a return, however, it was said.

The new forms for incomes of less than $5,000 have been simplified and the average person, by following the printed instructions which appear on the blank, should be able to make up their return without assistance, according to Mr. Hamilton. Out-of-town persons can make up their returns and have them acknowledged before a notary public and mail them to the Federal building.

Persons who fail to make a return before March 15 are liable to the $1,000 fine and an additional penalty of 25 per cent. of the amount due. Mr. Hamilton said. A number of returns have already been made.

SAYS IT TOOK GRIT TO STAY ON HIS BEAT

Popular Policeman of Covington, Ky., Gives Facts of Trying Experience

"I got more good out of the little money I paid for Tanlac than any I ever spent in my life," said Frank J. Hebbler, member of the police force of Covington, Ky.

"For months I was off my feed, as the saying goes, and what little I ate seemed to do me more harm than good. I was bothered a good deal by nervousness, too, and could get little or no sound sleep. Although I was able to stick on my beat, it took all my grit to do so.

"I hadn't been taking Tanlac long before I was feeling like a new man. Recently I underwent the periodic re-examination for the police force and passed with a rating of A-1, a fact which I attributed to the good Tanlac did me."

Tanlac is sold in Paris at Roche's Drug Store, and all leading drug stores.

Just Plain Salt.

Salt not only makes our food more palatable and nourishing, but also preserves it. Medicinally, salt is of incalculable value, and doctors are finding new uses for it every day. The poorest man or woman can be refreshed and rejuvenated by soaking the tired feet in salt and water before retiring; while people, unable to afford having their tonsils removed, can keep them in such a healthy condition, by gargling their throats with salt and water the first thing in the morning, and the last at night, that an operation is unnecessary.
